CITY ITEMS.

The Odd Fellows of the city have pur chused an organ barmonium for the use of the Grand Lodge Hall.

The new iron house, on Meridian street, belongs to W. J. Holliday & Co., and not Murphy & Kennedy, as we stated yesterday. This firm expect to move their stock in next week.

Matters worthy of record were very slim vesterday at the Police Court. Since the efforts of Dr. Boyd on the temperance question, the drinking business has about dried up, and we have only to record to day one case of intoxication, that of Michael Henifen, who paid $9 40 front by 130 feet deep, on the southeast corner being as wet as after a rain. of Meridian and Maryland streets, at $400 af front foot. It is the intention of this firm to build a room for their dry goods business equal to any on the street.

The proclamation of the Mayor will be found in to-day's paper, requiring the owners of dogs to either muzzle them or tie them up. The duct their part of the temperance discussion in a police are directed to shoot all dogs in the street fair and manly way," and that "outside meetings after this date, and the owners of dogs who ne- have no connection with the weekly meetings at gleet the proper requirements of the proclamation the Tabernacle." That is rather heavy on Boyd. can have no one to blame but themselves.

We understand that quite a fracas, al- cule by such fellows as Boyd. most amounting to a riot, occurred at the African Methodist Church on Tuesday night. A pistol shot was fired during the melee, and slung shots, brass-knucklers and fists were used promiscuous ly. The amusement was confined to those of the colored parsuasion exclusively. We could not learn the cause of the "muss," except that some of the younger portion of the congregation had been imbibing somewhat too freely.

GRAND MOONLIGHT EXCURSION. - There will be another moonlight excursion up the White river to-night, on the fine steamboat Gov. Morton, Capt. Socwell, commander. There was not a commanding Post of Indianapolis, Indiana; large party last night, owing to a mistake in the announcement, but those who were present passed a most pleasant evening, enjoying the pleasures of the dance or gazing on the varying landscapes as the boat moved up and down the river. Come one, come all, to night.

In grading Georgia street, between Meridian and Illinois streets, there is a cut made of from six to eight feet, leaving the houses built there elevated that much above the new level of the street. This very materially injures the rental of the property, and depreciates the value of it. It is possible this was necessary, but we must acknowledge we can't see how it is that every knoll and elevation in the city must be cut down to a dead level, and especially in a short street like Georgia, that could be drained without the cutting, as well or better than it is after

A Concent - The residents in the neighborhood of the First Ward School are entertained nightly music emitted, but not exactly in accordance with the strict rules of harmony, to the best regulated home concerts. The concert is largely attended by Newfoundland, bull dog, bloodhound, foxhound, greyhound, mastiff, pointer, setter, shepherd dog, spaniel, terrier, tan terrier, black and white terrier, fices, poodle, lap dog, cur, common cur, cur of low degree, and valler dogs. Their voices run through six octaves and a half, and the force of their lungs equal the bel lows of a church organ. From the best infortion we could get, the musicians are all of the gentlemen sex except two. One of the females wears a yellow dress, and the other comes out in summer costume-white and lilse. We can't tell whether the feminines are married or not; if they ain't, they ought to be. The males don't agree very well among themselves, as occasion ally can be heard angry discussions and boisterous disputes. It is during these seasons of discussion that they make the loudest music. If we didn't know it was a concert, we might suppose it was a temperance meeting or a Republican Convention. We don't believe they have paid any tax, leastwise we didn't see any tags on many dollars for license if he would attend these concerts; or the police, those untirable guardians of the public peace, might get at least $1,498 50 in witness fees, if they would invite the dogs, and the men who live with them, up to the Captains office (not Socwell's) to settle. These seen at Mr. Hodgson's office for one week. concerts didn't disturb us much, as we have got |. 30 6 accustomed to them-but some of the neighbors think they should either be stopped, or required to take out license. Fifty dollars a night for menageries is the price, with a penalty of five hundred for exhibiting without license. If these nocturnal visitors don't comply with the law in the future we shall inform against them.
